For your final assignment, you will be contributing to the South Phoenix Oral History Project.

In this assignment, you will index your interview. Here's how:

Download or save an editable version of this template. You will not have access to edit this page, because it is a template to be used by many students.

Type the name of your narrator in the box below:

George and Susan Morris Brooks

Now, create about 10-15 segments for your interview using the template. You may copy and paste the table as many times as you need.
