

Narrator: Rhudenia Bealer

Time	Title	Synopsis	Partial Transcript	Keywords/ Subjects
5:30	Introductions	Dr. Cherland settles in and begins the interview asking about Mrs. Bealer's church	"Thank you for letting me read your beautiful story. How did the speech go over at church?"	...
6:13	Mrs. Bealer's beginnings in South Phoenix	Mrs. Bealer explains that she and her family moved from West Plains, Missouri in 1943. She also discusses her involvement with her Methodist Church	"My family came to Arizona in 1943 ..."	West Plains, Missouri; Wesley United Methodist Church
11:09	Family Member Background	Mrs. Bealer recalls when members of her family came out to Arizona and where her children and grandchildren went to school	"Now Alexander Mason came after..."	Phoenix Union High School; Deputy City Manager of Phoenix; Wesley United Methodist Church
14:33	Reason for coming to Arizona	Mrs. Bealer explains that her uncle helped them move out to Arizona from Missouri. She	"My uncle Henry Rice sent for our family..."	New Sanctuary across the Street; Dehydration; Phoenix Methodist Community elaborates on her experiences and feelings regarding moving across the country at the young age of 15.

19:07	School/Work Situation	Mrs. Bealer explains that by the time she moved, she was around sophomore year. She did not attend a highschool in Phoenix, but did receive lessons and homework in the mail. She also worked in a laundry store after 3 more years of school.	"I went to highschool in West Plains..."	Mailed-in school forms
23:29	SMCC and ASU Graduates in the family	Mrs. Bealer explains that she had 4 ASU graduates in the family and some of them had first come through South Mountain.	"The youngest one was 17 and then she graduated from South Mountain..."	South Mountain CC; ASU; Woodrow Wilson Fellowship; Air Force

31:05	Meeting Husband George Bealer	Mrs. Bealer recalls that she met her husband after leaving a club and eating at a late night restaurant when a group of "air-men" (including George) walked in. George came up to her and told her that she looked like his Aunt.	"We were at an after -hour restaurant..."	Meeting George; Airmen and Sailor
36:40	Going to Church in Turkey	Mrs. Bealer explains that she belonged to the women of the chapel in Turkey while she was over there for her husband (he was stationed there for the air force)	"I joined the women of the chapel..."	Women of the Chapel; Airmen's Club
40:05	Moving the church location to Southern in South Phoenix	Mrs. Bealer explains that the church leaders moved their location to South Phoenix because there was a property for sale here. There also happened to be a company who wanted to buy the spaces	"I think, as far as I could remember..."	Baseline around them for development.

43:20	Church Experience at Wesley	Mrs. Bealer gives a detailed recollection of what going to church at Wesley was like. Lifetime choir members, serious church, communion, hymns, etc.	“They had a choir, and they had the children’s choir...”	Children and Senior Choirs; Communion; Liturgy
48:01	Palm Sunday and Easter Services	Mrs. Bealer talks about the recent Palm Sunday and upcoming Easter services that have been/are going to take place very recently/soon.	“Palm Sunday, now yesterday for Palm Sunday...”	Palm Sunday; Call to Worship
49:50	South Phoenix experience in 60s/70s	Mrs. Bealer recalls that the region was filled with lots of markets. She remembers being close to a K-Mart. She says that after 10th street, it was all cotton and no markets.	“It was a lot of markets, you know like...”	Cotton; K-Mart; Wesley Alter Flowers
52:40	Flower	Mrs. Bealer	“Right now, like	Poinsettias;

	Arrangements Today	explains that a lot of the flowers and even church equipment gets donated now. Flowers for past christmas were donated poinsettias.	Christmas, someone did..."	Donated Organ
53:53	South Phoenix Changing	Mrs. Bealer explains that a lot of schools were built around her in the 50 years she has lived in South Phoenix. She also explains that a member of her church became the superintendent of a new school district called Roosevelt School District.	"Ok, they built three schools on..."	Roosevelt School District; Superintendent ;
55:18	Favorite Memories at Wesley	Mrs. Bealer ends the interview talking about her favorite memories with her church.	"Working with Pastor Mason,..."	Watkins Shelter; Bible Study; Sunday School